Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited)

1. Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements (the "financial statements") include the accounts of Arrhythmia Research Technology, Inc ("ART") and its subsidiary, Micron Products, Inc. ("Micron" and together with ART, the "Company"). ART's wholly owned Pennsylvania subsidiary, RMDDxUSA Corp. ("RMDDxUSA") and that subsidiary's Prince Edward Island subsidiary, RMDDx Corporation ("RMDDx" and collectively with RMDDxUSA, "WirelessDx") discontinued operations in the third quarter of 2012. The WirelessDx results are presented herein as discontinued operations. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The unaudited interim consolidated financial statements and related notes have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Accordingly, certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in complete financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") have been omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations. These financial statements and related notes should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 filed with the SEC on March 21, 2014. Certain reclassifications have been made to prior period amounts to conform to the current year presentation.

The results of operations for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year. The Company's balance sheet at December 31, 2013 has been derived from the audited financial statements at that date, but does not include all the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements.

The information presented reflects, in the opinion of the management of the Company, all adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of the financial results for the interim periods presented. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. Operating Matters and Liquidity

The Company experienced net operating losses in 2013 and 2012, primarily as a result of the discontinued WirelessDx operations. The Company believes that cash flows from its operations, together with its existing working capital and other resources, will be sufficient to fund operations at current levels and repay debt obligations over the next twelve months and beyond. The Company continues to develop opportunities within new and existing channels where the Company can maximize its return on investments in capital equipment, research and development, marketing and human resources.

On June 26, 2014, the Company entered into a new equipment line of credit for $1.0 million under the Company's multi-year credit facility entered into on March 29, 2013 with a Massachusetts bank (see Note 6).

3. Earnings per Share ("EPS")

Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. The computation of diluted earnings (loss) per share is similar to the computation of basic earnings (loss) per share except that the denominator is increased to include the average number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the dilutive potential common shares had been issued. In addition, the numerator is adjusted for any changes in net income (loss) that would result from the assumed conversions of those potential shares.

The following table presents the calculation of both basic and diluted EPS.

	Three months ended June 30,		Six months ended June 30,

Long-term notes payable	$ 1,577,895	$ 1,179,709
Subordinated promissory notes	$ 431,610	$ 417,769

The revolving line of credit, equipment line of credit, equipment term loan and the commercial term loan are all under the terms of a multi-year credit facility with a bank entered into on March 29, 2013. The bank facility contains both financial and non-financial covenants.

Revolving line of credit

The revolving line of credit provides for borrowings up to 80% of eligible accounts receivable and 50% of eligible raw materials inventory. The interest rate on the revolver is calculated at the bank's prime rate plus 0.25% (3.50% at June 30, 2014). The revolver has a maturity date of June 2015.

Equipment line of credit and equipment term loan

The equipment line of credit allowed for advances of up to $1.0 million and included a one-year draw period during which payments were interest only. The draw period ended March 29, 2014 and the then outstanding balance on the equipment line of credit of $740,999 was converted to a five-year term loan with monthly payments of $13,890, consisting of principal and interest at a fixed rate of 4.65%.

On June 26, 2014, the Company entered into a new equipment line of credit for $1.0 million under the Company's multi-year credit facility. This equipment line of credit is for the purchase of capital equipment. As of the date of this filing, no amounts have been drawn on the equipment line. The term of this equipment line is six years, maturing on June 26, 2020, inclusive of a maximum one year draw period. Repayment shall consist of monthly interest only payments, equal to the bank's prime rate plus 0.25% as to each advance commencing on the date of the loan through the earlier of: (i) one year from the date of the loan or (ii) the date upon which the equipment line of credit is fully advanced (the "Conversion Date"). On the Conversion Date, principal and interest payments will be due and payable monthly in an amount sufficient to pay the loan in full based upon an amortization schedule commensurate with the remaining term of the loan.

Commercial term loan

The commercial term loan has a five year term with a maturity date in March 2018. The interest rate on the loan is a fixed 4.25% per annum.

Equipment notes

In January 2013, the Company entered into two equipment notes totaling $272,500 with a financing company to acquire production equipment. The notes bear interest at the fixed rate of 4.66% and require monthly payments of principal and interest over the term of five years.

Subordinated promissory notes

In December 2013, the Company completed a private offering in which the Company sold an aggregate of $500,000 in subordinated promissory notes. The notes are unsecured and require quarterly interest-only payments at a rate of 10% per annum. On the second anniversary following issuance, the interest rate increases to 12% per annum. The notes mature in December 2016 at which point the outstanding balance is due in full. The subordinated promissory notes may be prepaid by the Company at any time following the first anniversary thereof without penalty. The notes are subordinated to all indebtedness of the Company pursuant to the bank credit facility.

In connection with the subordinated promissory notes, the Company issued warrants to purchase the Company's common stock. The proceeds were allocated between the notes and warrants on a relative fair value basis resulting in $416,950 allocated to the notes and $83,050 allocated to the warrants as part of Additional-Paid-in-Capital. The total discount on the notes is being recognized as non-cash interest expense over the term of the notes. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2014, the Company recorded $6,921 and $13,842 of non-cash interest expense, respectively, related to the amortization of the discount. The unamortized discount which is net against the outstanding balance of the subordinated promissory notes is $68,390 at June 30, 2014 and $82,231 at December 31, 2013.

7. Income Taxes

The tax provisions for the three and six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013 are attributable to the U.S. Federal, state and foreign income taxes on our continuing operations.

The tax provision for the three and six months ended June 30, 2013 also includes the impact on tax expense of $2,267,969 associated with the establishment of a full valuation allowance of the Company's beginning of the year deferred tax assets.

The Company has a full valuation allowance against its deferred tax assets at both June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013.

8. Commitments and Contingencies

Legal matters

In the ordinary course of its business, the Company is involved in various legal proceedings involving a variety of matters. The Company does not believe there are any pending legal proceedings that will have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations. With respect to a specific matter, a third party had asserted a claim of approximately $100,000 against the Company as of December 31, 2013. On April 22, 2014 the case was dismissed with no judgment issued against the Company.

The increase in net sales was due to increased sales for the three months ended June 30, 2014 in sensors of $803,437, or 32.7%, over the same period in 2013. Excluding the impact of silver surcharge billed, sensor sales increased $738,959, or 48.5%, for the three months ended June 30, 2014 as compared to the same period in 2013 while silver surcharge billed increased $64,478, or 6.9%. The increase in total sensor sales was due primarily to a 43.2% increase in volume, partially offset by a 17.7% decrease in the average price of silver for the three months ended June 30, 2014 as compared to the same period in 2013. In addition, sales of machined orthopedic implants increased $732,067, or 81.7% for the three months ended June 30, 2014 as compared to the same period in 2013 due to increased order volume.

For the six months ended June 30, 2014 the Company's consolidated net sales were $12,283,600, an increase of $1,759,966, or 16.7%, as compared to total net sales of $10,523,634 for the six months ended June 30, 2013. The increase in net sales was due to increased sales for the six months ended June 30, 2014 over 2013 in machined orthopedic implants of $1,735,100, or 105.9%, due to increased order volume, as well as increased sensor sales of $291,644 or 5.1%. The increase in total sensor sales was due primarily to a 19.7% increase in volume, partially offset by a 32.5% decrease in the average price of silver for the six months ended June 30, 2014 as compared to the same period in 2013. These increases were partially offset by decreased sales of custom thermoplastic injection molding and tooling.

Cost of Sales

The Company's consolidated cost of sales for the three months ended June 30, 2014 was $5,119,734 (81.9% of net sales) as compared to $4,322,779 (88.6% of net sales) for the three months ended June 30, 2013; an increase of $796,955 or 18.4%. The increase was largely due to increased materials and labor costs due to increased net sales partially offset by improved cost control and efficiencies which drove the improved gross margin. Cost of sales for machined orthopedic implants of $1,015,829 (62.4% of net orthopedic sales) for the three months ended June 30, 2014, increased $281,006, or 38.2% as compared to the same period in 2013. The increase in cost of sales of machined orthopedic implants was due to the increase in net sales as well as increased costs for quality inspection and regulatory requirements. Cost of sales for total sensors increased 25.5% due largely to increased sales volume partially offset by a lower average cost of silver.

For the six months ended June 30, 2014 the Company's consolidated cost of sales was $9,838,291 (80.1% of net sales) as compared to $9,013,820 (85.7% of net sales) for the six months ended June 30, 2013; an increase of $824,471 or 9.1%. The increase is largely due to increased net sales. Cost of sales for machined orthopedic implants of $2,253,642 (66.8% of net orthopedic sales) for the six months ended June 30, 2014, increased $889,971, or 65.3% as compared to the same period in 2013. The increase in cost of sales of machined orthopedic implants was due to the increase in net sales as well as increased costs for quality inspection and regulatory requirements. Cost of sales for total sensors increased 3.2% due largely to increased sales volume partially offset by a lower average cost of silver.

Selling and Marketing

The Company's consolidated selling and marketing expenses amounted to $240,408 (3.8% of net sales) for the three months ended June 30, 2014 as compared to $246,839 (5.1% of net sales) for the three months ended June 30, 2013; a decrease of $6,431 or 2.6%. For the three months ended June 30, 2014, advertising, trade show and travel related expenses increased $13,959 due to a new marketing campaign related to the Company's machined orthopedic implants. This increase was offset by decreases in other selling and marketing expenditures.

For the six months ended June 30, 2014 the Company's consolidated selling and marketing expenses increased to $532,080 (4.3% of net sales) as compared to $487,214 (4.6% of net sales) for the six months ended June 30, 2013; an increase of $44,866 or 9.2%. In 2014, advertising, trade show and travel related expenses increased $53,382 due to a new marketing campaign related to the Company's machined orthopedic implants.

General and Administrative

The Company's consolidated general and administrative expenses decreased to $543,235 (8.7% of net sales) for the three months ended June 30, 2014 as compared to $585,345 (12.0% of net sales) for the three months ended June 30, 2013; a decrease of $42,110 or 7.2%

The decreases in consolidated general and administrative expenses for both the three and six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively, were due in part to decreased wages, taxes, benefits and travel of $49,474 and $97,017, respectively, due primarily to the resignations of both the former Interim CEO and former Chief Financial Officer in 2013. Legal fees decreased $27,235 and $20,433, respectively, due primarily to the wind down of RMDDx, and accounting fees were lower by $17,417 and $60,074 by eliminating audit overruns. Additionally, director fees decreased $7,500, and $15,000, respectively, as a result of the resignation of a member of the Board of Directors in September 2013. Additional decreases occurred in expenses for seminars, recruiting fees and depreciation. These decreases were partially offset by a net increase of $67,760 in the allowance for doubtful accounts for both the three and six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013.

Research and Development

The Company's consolidated research and development expenses increased to $85,694 (1.4% of net sales) for the three months ended June 30, 2014 as compared to $61,293 (1.3% of net sales) for the three months ended June 30, 2013; an increase of $24,401, or 39.8%.

The increases for the three and six months ended June 30, 2014 were each due to additional resources dedicated to the development of new products in the Company's medical device, military and law enforcement lines of business.

Other Income (Expense)

Other expense, net was $23,842 for the three months ended June 30, 2014 as compared to $189,094 for the three months ended June 30, 2013, a decrease of $165,252, primarily as a result of a decrease in interest expense. For the six months ended June 30, 2014, Other expense, net was $91,679 as compared to $199,776 for the six months ended June 30, 2013, a decrease of $108,097 also due primarily as a result of a decrease in interest expense.

The decrease in interest expense for both the three and six months ended June 30, 2014 as compared to the same period in 2013 was primarily due to $111,989 of interest expense in 2013 from the payoff of equipment notes and operating leases as part of entering into the new credit facility in March 2013.

Income Tax Provision

The tax provisions for the three and six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013 are attributable to the U.S. Federal, state and foreign income taxes on our continuing operations. The tax provision for the three and six months ended June 30, 2013 includes the impact on tax expense of $2,267,969 associated with the establishment of a full valuation allowance of the Company's beginning of the year deferred tax assets.

The change in the income tax provision for the three and six months ended June 30, 2014 as compared to the same period in 2013 is primarily due to the establishment of a full valuation allowance against deferred tax assets.

The Company has federal, state and foreign net operating loss carryforwards totaling $7,420,000, $10,471,000 and $1,039,000 respectively, which begin to expire in 2030. Liquidity and Capital Resources

Working capital was $1,063,236 as of June 30, 2014 as compared to $3,479,852 at December 31, 2013. The decrease is due largely to the revolving line of credit becoming a short term obligation due to its June 2015 expiration date. The Company intends to work with the bank to renew the revolving line of credit prior to its maturity in June 2015.

Cash and cash equivalents from continuing operations were $232,024 and $749,766 at June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively. Substantially all of these funds are maintained in bank deposit accounts.

Inventories were $3,087,557 at June 30, 2014 as compared to $2,335,291 at December 31, 2013, an increase of $752,266. This increase was due largely to increased work-in-progress in tooling.

Capital equipment expenditures were $834,971 for the six months ended June 30, 2014 due to investments in machinery and equipment largely for molding equipment.

In March 2013, the Company entered into a multi-year credit facility with a Massachusetts bank. The new credit facility includes a revolving line of credit ("revolver") of up to $4.0 million, a commercial term loan of $1.5 million and an equipment line of credit of $1.0 million.

The revolving line of credit provides for borrowings up to 80% of eligible accounts receivable and 50% of eligible raw materials inventory. The interest rate on the revolver is calculated at the bank's prime rate plus 0.25% (3.50% at June 30, 2014). The revolver has a maturity date of June 2015. The balance outstanding on the revolver was $2,296,495 as of June 30, 2014.

The commercial term loan has a five year term with a maturity date in March 2018. The interest rate on the loan is a fixed 4.25% per annum. At June 30, 2014, the balance of the term loan was $1,153,131.

The equipment line of credit allowed for advances of up to $1.0 million and included a one-year draw period during which payments were interest only. The balance of the equipment term loan was $707,944 as of June 30, 2014.

On June 26, 2014, the Company entered into a new equipment line of credit for $1.0 million under the Company's multi-year credit facility entered into on March 29, 2013 with the Massachusetts based bank. The equipment line of credit is for the purchase of capital equipment. As of the date of this filing, no amounts have been drawn on the equipment line. The term of this equipment line is six years, maturing on June 26, 2020, inclusive of a maximum one year draw period. Repayment shall consist of monthly interest only payments, equal to the banks prime rate plus 0.25% (3.5% at June 30, 2014) as to each advance commencing on the date of the loan through the earlier of: (i) one year from the date of the loan or (ii) the date upon which the equipment line of credit is fully advanced (the "Conversion Date"). On the Conversion Date, principal and interest payments will be due and payable monthly in an amount sufficient to pay the loan in full based upon an amortization schedule commensurate with the remaining term of the loan.

In January 2013, the Company entered into two equipment notes totaling $272,500 with a financing company to acquire production equipment. The notes bear interest at 4.66% and require monthly payments of principal and interest over the term of five years. The outstanding balance of these equipment notes at June 30, 2014 was $196,539.

In December 2013, the Company completed a private offering in which the Company sold an aggregate of $500,000 in subordinated promissory notes. The notes are unsecured and require quarterly interest-only payments at a rate of 10% per annum. On the second anniversary following issuance, the interest rate increases to 12% per annum. The notes mature in December 2016 at which point the outstanding balance is due in full. The subordinated promissory notes may be prepaid by the Company at any time following the first anniversary thereof without penalty. The notes are subordinated to all indebtedness of the Company pursuant to the bank credit facility.

In connection with the subordinated promissory notes, the Company issued warrants to purchase the Company's common stock. The proceeds were allocated between the notes and warrants on a relative fair value basis, resulting in $416,950 allocated to the notes and $83,050 allocated to the warrants. The total discount on the notes is being recognized as non-cash interest expense over the term of the notes. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, the Company recorded $6,921 and $13,842 of non-cash interest expense, respectively, related to the amortization of the discount. The unamortized discount which is net against the outstanding balance of the subordinated promissory notes is $68,390 at June 30, 2014 and $82,231 at December 31, 2013.

The borrowing agreement, under the bank facility as described above, contains both financial and non-financial covenants. The financial covenants include maintaining certain debt coverage and leverage ratios. The non-financial covenants relate to various matters including notice prior to executing further borrowings and security interests, mergers or consolidations, acquisitions, guarantees, sales of assets other than in the normal course of business, leasing, changes in ownership and payment of dividends.

At December 31, 2013, the Company had a $1.0 million liability for an unmet performance obligation related to the discontinued operations. This performance obligation was secured by $1.0 million of restricted cash. The performance guarantee liability was carried on the balance sheet of continuing operations, as the liability was guaranteed by ART.

In May 2014, $975,430 was drawn from the restricted cash, satisfying the guarantee on the performance obligation. The balance of $24,570 was returned to ART and recorded as other income (expense) on the condensed consolidated statements of operations. At June 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, the Company had $0 and $1,000,000 of restricted cash, respectively.

No dividends were declared or paid in the three or six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

The Company believes that cash flows from its operations, together with its existing working capital and other resources, will be sufficient to fund operations at current levels and repay debt obligations over the next twelve months and beyond. The Company continues to develop opportunities within new and existing channels where the Company can maximize its return on investments in capital equipment, research and development, marketing and human resources.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our principal executive officer and principal financial officer (“the Certifying Officers”) have evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)). Based on such evaluation, our Certifying Officers have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this report, were adequate and effective to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by us, including our consolidated subsidiary, in reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act, is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the SEC’s rules and forms, and that information we are required to disclose in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to our management as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

The effectiveness of a system of disclosure controls and procedures is subject to various inherent limitations, including cost limitations, judgments used in decision making, assumptions about the likelihood of future events, the soundness of internal controls, and fraud. Due to such inherent limitations, there can be no assurance that any system of disclosure controls and procedures will be successful in preventing all errors or fraud, or in making all material information known in a timely manner to the appropriate levels of management.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

During the three months ended June 30, 2014 there have been no changes in the Company’s internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act) that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company’s internal control over financial reporting.
